

EMDRIA Custom Remote Group Consultation Agreement

This agreement is between Andrew M. Leeds, Ph.D. (Consultant) and _____ (Consultee).

Nature of Service: Specific learning objectives include perceptual, conceptual, and functional skills involving the theoretical, practical and technical application of the AIP model and EMDR as a method of psychotherapy. If Consultee is seeking consultation services to meet the consultation requirement for EMDRIA Certification in EMDR, the focus will be on mastery of the standard EMDR protocols as described in Shapiro’s 2018 text and Leeds 2016 text. EMDR case formulation and treatment planning skills will also be addressed. Screening procedures and issues of differential diagnosis for dissociative disorders may also be addressed; however, Consultee agrees that modified EMDR treatment protocols required for applying EMDR treatment to those with dissociative disorders will not be addressed and will not counted toward EMDRIA Certification hours.

Limits of Service: It is expressly agreed that no supervision or employment relationship exists between Consultant and Consultee. Consultee – or Consultee’s legally mandated supervisor if any – remains solely responsible for services provided to Consultee’s clients. Consultant will provide information based on research, scholarly consensus, and Consultant’s experience for Consultee to consider. Consultee will at all times rely on his or her own judgment in offering specific psychotherapy services to Consultee’s clients.

Confidentiality: Consultee will notify his or her clients and obtain written informed consent prior to presenting any confidential case material to Consultant. Consultee will take all necessary steps to avoid disclosing any identifying information about clients verbally or in writing to Consultant.

Evidence of fidelity in the use of EMDR: It is agreed that before Consultant will write a letter in support of EMDRIA certification, Consultee will provide Consultant with video or a near verbatim transcript of two or more EMDR treatment session that demonstrate satisfactory fidelity to standard EMDR principles, procedures and protocols. It is preferable for at least one such videotape or transcript to be presented to Consultant before the fifth hour of consultation.

Fees: Consultee agrees to pay Consultant his or her pro-rata share of Consultant’s fee of $185 per hour of service for consultation. Payment may be by credit card or by check within 7 days of services being rendered. Consultee will provide two business days notice to cancel or reschedule consultation appointments or pay the standard fee.

Resolution of issues: Consultant and Consultee agree to abide by their respective professional organizations’ code of ethics. If any ethical issues arise related to the consultation relationship, Consultant and Consultee will make every effort to resolve them informally and with good will.
